

THE TWELFTH HADRIAN'S WALL ARCHAEOLOGY FORUM (2022)

The Queen's Hall, Hexham
Saturday May 21st 9.45 - 4.15

The programme will include the following talks:

Recent excavations at Vindolanda and survey work at Magna (Andrew Birley and Marta Alberti).

A community archaeology project at High Rochester (Richard Carlton).

An update on fieldwork undertaken as part of the Wallcap project (Rob Collins).

The quarries along the central sector of Hadrian's Wall (Katy O'Donnell).

New excavations at Birdoswald in 2021 (Tony Wilmott).

Excavating the bathhouse at Carlisle (Frank Giecco).

Tickets £16.00 (includes mid-morning tea/coffee/orange juice. Please note we are unable to provide lunch on this occasion but hope to offer this option for the 2023 event). The new edition of the Hadrian's Wall Archaeology magazine (No. 11) will be on sale at the event along with a selection of other publications (CASH OR CHEQUES ONLY).
